ENTOMBED IN A MINE

Nearly Half a Hundred Men Imprisoned.

BUT LITTLE HOPE FOR ANY.

A Few Have Been Rescued Alive and Report That Their Comrades Were Either Killed In the Explosion or Were Suffocated by the Foul Air—The Work of Rescue Being Pushed.

CARDIFF, Wales, Jan. 28.—The residents of the town and vicinity of Tylorstown, which is situated near here, were terrified by a terrific reverberation yesterday, which shook the whole town and caused people to rush out of doors, wondering whether they were being overwhelmed by an earthquake. It was ascertained in a short time that the concussion was caused by an explosion in a neighboring colliery, with disastrous consequences to life and property.

Reports of the number of killed have been conflicting and there is doubt as to the actual number of men in the mine at the time of the catastrophe. The first reports gave the number of miners in the shaft as 54, but some of them escaped to the surface.

The mining population of the locality knew all too quickly what the muffled, thunderous rumble of the explosion meant and rushed to the mouth of the pit, only to have their worst fears confirmed. The shaft was found to be entirely shattered, and it was evident that there was little hope that any of those in the pit could have survived the explosion. The despair of the women who flocked about the mouth of the pit was little more terrible than the horrible anxiety of those who hoped to find that those who were missing from their sides had, by some chance, not entered the mine.

The pit was found to have caught fire and the hindrance that this caused to the work of the rescue parties added to the excitement and tension of feeling. It was only through braving the utmost peril that the living were able to prosecute their quest for the dead. The number of the dead removed grew from 12 to 15, then 20, and the list of those known to have been in the fated shaft kept constantly growing and with it the number of bereaved families waiting at the surface.

The work of exploration is going steadily forward, but under great difficulty, the numerous cave-ins obstructing the advance and making it impossible to reach remote portions of the mine, while the defective ventilation often drove back those who were advancing on their sad errand. The last to come out brought with them five bodies. Several of the miners have been rescued alive and are able to tell something of the occurrence.

Those who have been engaged in the work of exploration and the few survivors who have been rescued tell terrible stories of the scenes they witnessed and the dead bodies they found or stumbled over, strewn in all directions as they fell overcome by firedamp or hurled by the force of the explosion.

One of the survivors, a fireman, who was in the mine when the explosion came, started to work his way in the direction of the entrance with painful and almost hopeless labor, making frequent pauses. In one spot he was obliged to stop and wait for four hours on account of afterdamp. At the end of that time he ventured to advance a few steps further when he had to desist again and wait another two hours in hopeless darkness.

Another fireman who made his way out of the death pit by a long journey relates that he passed numerous men on the way who were unconscious and helpless and badly burned. He could do nothing for them and was obliged to leave them to their fate.

The rescuers continued their work indefatigably all through the night, encouraged by the saving of a few to hope that still others remained alive in the mine whose lives may possibly be saved.

MACEO'S MOVEMENTS.

He Is Doing a Vast Amount of Damage in the Province of Pinar del Rio.

HAVANA, Jan. 28.—Communication with Pinar del Rio is still very much interrupted, but reports received by courier show that the insurgents there under Antonio Maceo are displaying great activity and are doing much damage despite the reports disseminated here that he was being closely pressed by the Spanish troops and was anxious to escape into Havana as best he could.

Maceo and his men are in the extreme western portion of Pinar del Rio, according to the latest accounts. The volunteer troops at Paso Real and Guanabacoa report that large numbers of insurgents have been passing those points in the direction of the city of Pinar del Rio and that they have formed a junction with Maceo whose following was about 4,000.

Maceo has now scoured the province of Pinar del Rio as far west as the sea coast and it remains to be seen whether the claim of the authorities can be made good that he will not be allowed to return to the eastward or to rejoin his forces with those of Gomez.

It is admitted that some 2,000 residents of Pinar del Rio province have joined the forces of the insurgents.

At Mantua the insurgents learned from confidential sources of the whereabouts of large stores of ammunition, which were all captured.

Those who are fleeing before the advance of the insurgents can go no farther west on land and at Arroyos de Mantua they have boarded the pilot boats Guanera, Lince, Nueva Holanda and Khivas for refuge.

Pablo Oliva effected a junction at Punta De La Sierra, Pinar del Rio, with about 300 other insurgents, and afterward succeeded in capturing the private guards on the plantation of Murias.

At Santa Isabel, which is on the western coast of Cuba, the stores were plundered and at Santa Marta the same was done.

Judge Pedro Rodriguez of Mena, district of San Cristobal, who was detained on account of his political opinion and who was afterward imprisoned for conspiracy against the government, has committed suicide.

At Quintana railroad station a band of insurgents was dispersed after they had destroyed two switches, several culverts and a portion of the telegraph line.

RESULT OF A FIRE.

Two Babies Dead and Their Mother Dying of Her Injuries.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—Two babies dead and their mother dying is the result of a fire at the home of John Steele, a lamp chimney maker on the South Side, last night. The victims are:

Mary Steele, aged 5 years, burned to death.

Nora Steele, aged 2 years, burned to death.

Mrs. Jennie Steele, aged 27, fatally injured by jumping from a second story window.

About 9 o'clock last night, while Mr. Steele was at work in Hagan, Evans & Company's glass factory, the mother took her four children Johnny, 7 years old, Mary, Nora, and a 7-months-old babe, upstairs to put them to bed. The older ones were in bed and the baby was being washed when Nora, lying in her crib, playfully kicked over a stand on which stood a lamp. Johnny, who tells the story, says the lamp fell on the floor and exploded. His mother kicked it from the room down the stairs and within a few moments the stairway was in flames cutting off escape that way.

The frantic mother then picked up the baby and followed by the boy, ran to a second story front window, tied the baby in the blanket and let it down to the ground in safety. She then saved Johnny in the same manner and turned back to rescue the two little girls, but the rear portion of the dwelling was all in flames and she was compelled to abandon them. In jumping from the window to save herself she struck on her head, sustaining a fracture of the skull and internal injuries from the effects of which she will die.

The father was summoned from his work and is crazed with grief.

KNOCKED OUT IN TWO ROUNDS.

Dan Creedon, Middleweight, Defeats Jim Smith, Heavyweight.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Dan Creedon, middleweight, last night defeated Jim Smith, heavyweight, in two rounds. Creedon weighed 162 pounds and Smith 180. Creedon showed himself the more clever of the two, besides having a longer reach.

Creedon had the best of the first round, the company expressing its disapproval of Smith's tactics. The latter was blowing freely when time was called.

In the second round there were a number of smart exchanges and finally Creedon swung his right with great force on the mark. Smith fell like a log and failed to rise, the round only lasting 1 minute and 20 seconds.

No One to Blame.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 28.—After the submission of considerable expert testimony at the inquest into the cause of the deaths of Fireman Rhody and Stanton Kerey, a verdict was reached by the coroner's jury, finding that no one was to blame for the collapse of the Aloe building, which was partially destroyed by fire last week. The jury, however, recommended a stricter system of inspection for buildings in the business district and the vigorous enforcement of inspection laws.

No Desecration of Our Flag.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Senator Hansbrough has decided upon a modification of his bill to prevent the desecration of the national flag which is a change of phraseology more than of meaning. The bill as changed will make it "unlawful for any person or persons, corporation or company, to use the national flag or the coat of arms of the United States or any pattern, imitation, or representation thereof, upon or in connection with any advertisement for private gain."

Destitution in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 28.—The destitution is increasing and the demands for labor are becoming more vehement. The streets are impassable from the recent snowstorms, thus affording work for a hundred men, yet no steps have been taken to clear them. Petitions are preparing for presentation to Governor Murray, urging the adoption of relief measures. Trains on one section of the railroad broke through the snow blockade after five days.

Lived 129 Years.

MCDONOUGH, Ga., Jan. 28.—Hiram Lester died on the poor farm of Henry county Friday night of old age, being in his 129th year at the time of his death. He was born in 1767 and claimed to have been in the revolutionary war, also that of 1812. He leaves one son and a daughter. His son is 87 years old and is the youngest of the two children.

Injured by the Trolley.

ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 28.—James Killey, 80 years old, was struck by a trolley car and fatally injured.

REFORMS IN TURKEY

Congress Urges That They Be Made at Once.

TO PROTECT THE CHRISTIANS.

The Senate and House Have Both Pledged to Support the President in the Most Vigorous Action He Might Take For the Protection and Security of American Citizens in Turkey.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The house yesterday, after an interesting four-hour debate, adopted the resolutions passed by the senate last week calling on the powers signatory to the treaty of Berlin, to enforce the reforms in Turkey guaranteed to the Christian Armenians and pledging the support of congress to the president in the most vigorous action he might take for the protection and security of American citizens in Turkey.

At Quintana railroad station a band of insurgents was dispersed after they had destroyed two switches, several culverts and a portion of the telegraph line.

MY GRANDMOTHER'S ROSE.

BY J. W.

OH, THE OLD PROVENCE ROSE BY MY GRANDMOTHER'S DOOR!
WHEN YE WAFT ME, YE WINDS, ITS RICH FRAGRANCE ONCE MORE.

THESE COMES TO MY MEMORY A PICTURE SO SWEET,

WHEN I PLAYED AS A CHILD AT MY GRANDMOTHER'S FEET.

IN THE GARDEN WERE FLOWERS IN BRIGHTEST ARRAY.

THESE WERE LILACS AND LILIES AND TULIPS SO GAY,

BUT OUR HEART Lingers MOST, AS OUR FEET DID IN YORE.

BENEATH THE OLD ROSE-TREE, THAT GREW BY THE DOOR.

FOR OUR GRANDMOTHER SAT, WHEN SHE SOUGHT HER REPOSE,

BENEATH THE GREAT SHADOW OF THAT OLD PROVENCE ROSE,

WHILE SHE READ IN HIS WORD OF HIS WONDERFUL CARE.

OF HIS PEOPLE FROM YOUTH, EVEN DOWN TO HOAR HAIR.

SO LONG HAD SHE SERVED HIM, IN WORD AND IN DEED,

FOR NONE WERE TURNED EMPTY AWAY IN THEIR NEED,

AND SHE TAUGHT US THE FULLNESS OF VIRTUE IS LOVE TO OUR NEIGHBOR BELOW AND OUR FATHER ABOVE.

THE ROSE WITH ITS FRAGRANCE STILL PERFUMES THE AIR,

LIKE THE LIFE THAT YET LIVES, THOUGH LONG VACANT THE CHAIR,

AND AS LIFE FAST ASPACE GROWS NEARER THE TOMB,

LIKE INCENSE IT RISES TO BRIGHTEN THE GLOOM.

WE MAY BOAST OF OUR ROSES WITH TITLES SO RARE,

THESE WERE NONE WITH THE OLD PROVENCE ROSE CAN COMPARE;

WE LOVED IT IN YOUTH, IN AGE YET THE MORE

FOR THE MEMORIES THAT CLING ROUND OUR GRANDMOTHER'S DOOR.

THE EXECUTORS OF THE LATE HON. JOHN T. WILSON, the wealthy ex-Congressman of Adams County, Ohio, held stock to the amount of $11,000 in the Farmers' National Bank, of Portsmouth, which lately closed its doors. If the prediction that the stockholders will be assessed the amount of their stock, and this sum is required to pay out the depositors, it means a loss of $22,000 to the worthy poor fund of Adams County. The executors, however, are in no degree responsible for the loss as the stock was left as a part of Mr. Wilson's estate.

DEED OF A BURGLAR.

A Woman Choked to Death and Her Child Badly Injured.

YONKERS, N. Y., Jan. 28.—Mrs. Edmund Tucker was choked to death by a burglar at her home on Central avenue, near Underhill, last night. She was found by her husband, who returned late, and discovered that all the doors were locked. Thinking his wife might be visiting he inquired of the neighbors and was told that she had not been seen since late in the afternoon. He then returned to his house, and going to a back window, heard the screams of his 3-year-old boy from within.

He opened the window and climbed inside, to find his wife lying dead in the hallway, just outside the sittingroom door. The little boy was also found to be suffering from a severe cut across the face and when asked what had caused the trouble, he said that an old man wearing a slouch hat and a seedy gray overcoat had entered the house and demanded money. When this was refused him, he seized Mrs. Tucker and choked her into insensibility. He then struck the boy with a heavy cane which he carried and proceeded to take what valuable things he could find in a hasty trip through the house.

Some of the missing articles are a lady's doublecased gold watch and several gold rings.

Coriander Miles' examination disclosed the fact that Mrs. Tucker had been in a delicate condition and that the shocks as well as the assault was responsible for her death.

STILL IN THE SAND.

The St. Paul Has Scarcely Moved an Inch in the Past Twenty-Four Hours.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Jan. 28.—The International Navigation company's steamer St. Paul, which ran aground off Long Branch early on Saturday morning is still lying broadside onto the shore. She has scarcely moved an inch from the position in which the tugs left her after they had succeeded in moving her about 50 or 60 yards astern from the spot where she struck in the sand when she ran headon in Saturday morning's fog.

The company's representatives are not sparing themselves in their endeavor to take the ship out of her dilemma and the wrecking company's men are working night and day to get her away from the Jersey coast. The steamer is in no immediate danger and assurances have come from the captain and other officers aboard that she is perfectly intact and that there is not the slightest sign of a leak anywhere.

There are four lighters constantly at work, unloading the ship's cargo and fully three-fourths of it has been sent up to New York.

TRAGEDY IN A BORDELLO.

He then turned the pistol against himself and discharged it, the ball taking effect just over the left nipple and inflicting a wound which will probably prove fatal. Jacques committed the deed while in a jealous frenzy. The girl's home is at Huntington, W. Va., and she has been in this city but a comparatively short time.

WAR VESSELS MOVING.

The Cruisers Montgomery and Raleigh Sail on a Mysterious Voyage.

NORFOLK, Jan. 28.—The cruiser Montgomery of Admiral Bunce's fleet lying in Hampton Roads passed out the capes at 10:30 o'clock last night. She was followed by the Raleigh which left at 12:05 o'clock. The destination of the warships is unknown.

From the fact that some of the officers of the cruisers have not yet joined their ships it is evident that the outside cruise will not be of long duration and therefore it is surmised that the purpose of the navy department is to use the Montgomery and the Raleigh to lie in waiting off the Virginia capes to pick up the Hawkins with the party of alleged filibusters under Garcia aboard and place the ship under detention and the party under arrest for violation of neutrality laws.

Suit Against the Lloyds.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28.—The regular fire insurance companies doing business in Ohio have requested Attorney General Monnett to bring suit in quo warranto to oust the Lloyds from doing business in Ohio, under a recent ruling of State Commissioner Hahn. Series of Accidents.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—Miss Lulu Kennedy, a stenographer, while on her way to take a train for her home at Crafton, yesterday evening, was struck by a handcar train and instantly killed. Her body was thrown about 50 feet and was badly mangled. While the patrol wagon was conveying the remains to the morgue it was run down by a streetcar, throwing the driver, John Quigg, and his assistant, Charles Fritz, violently to the ground. Quigg was probably fatally hurt and Fritz badly injured.

Pittsburgh Harbor Clear of Coal.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—The harbor is now practically clear of coal. Almost 6,000,000 bushels of the dusky diamonds were started south yesterday requiring every available tow boat here. What little coal remains can be shipped as soon as some of the returning fleet can get through the floating ice which is being followed closely by the boats now going out.

Shot by His Wife.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Jan. 28.—Near Sulphur Springs, Edmonson county, John Flora, a well-to-do farmer, aged 65, was shot and probably fatally injured by his wife, aged 26, while trying to kidnap their child. The couple had been separated a short time, the mother taking their child to her home.

Death of a Story Writer.

Shoemakers' Strike.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 28.—The demand of the shoemakers for an advance from 7 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents for making a new model of toothpick shoe resulted yesterday in 40 men leaving the Kenward factory and 50 the Jacobs factory.
